BE A PART OF THE I-SEAMORE'S
STRONG COMMUNITY.
BE INVOLVED IN THE PROJECT!

Within the I-SEAMORE consortium, cooperation is paramount, encompassing ethical, technical, and societal perspectives. In our endeavor to achieve diverse and impactful outcomes, we recognize the value of external stakeholders contributing to a richer solution and validation process. The I-SEAMORE Community Program is born from this ethos – it aims to build a robust and engaged community. Community Members are not bound by formalities, providing flexibility for active participation in project activities. While not obligatory, their engagement is highly significant for project dissemination and community involvement.
